May We Honor THE FALLEN

As we step into Memorial Day weekend, our hearts are full of both gratitude and reverence. In our May We Honor series, this weekend holds a sacred moment as we pause to honor the fallen, those brave men and women who gave their lives in service to our country. Their sacrifice is the very reason we experience the freedoms we so often take for granted.

Freedom isn't free. It has always come at a cost. And for some families in our CBC community that cost is deeply personal. To every Gold Star family, to every person carrying the weight of loss; we are with you, you are not forgotten, and neither is your loved one. Your loved one's name, story, and sacrifice matter to God, to us, and to this nation. May God's peace and comfort meet you in the quiet moments of remembrance this weekend.

Scripture tells us in John 15:13, "Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends." This weekend, we reflect on that truth and give thanks for those who laid down their lives so we could live ours in freedom.

Much Love,

The Cares Center

You don't have to carry your burdens alone. At every CBC campus, we have The Cares Center located in the lobby ready to offer biblical guidance, support, and prayer. After every service, you'll also find Prayer Partners at the front of the Worship Center who would be honored to pray with you. Whatever you're walking through, you're not alone. We're here for you.
