

Title: You got Oil?

Text: Matthew 25:1-13

Target: Big difference between being around Jesus and belonging to Jesus.

Discussion Questions: Don't feel like you have to answer every question; just let these questions be a guide for conversation in your community group or a mirror of reflection for your own spiritual journey. Much Love...P.E.

1. How does knowing Jesus is coming back affect the way we live today?
2. Do you personally think about Christ's return often? Why or why not?
3. What are some ways people today can look spiritually prepared but not actually be prepared?
4. How can church involvement sometimes create false confidence?
5. What emotions come to mind when you think about Christ returning suddenly?
6. Why do you think Jesus repeatedly warns that we do not know the time of His return?
7. How should the reality of His return influence daily decisions?
8. Why is it possible to know religious language without knowing Jesus personally?
9. What does it mean practically to "stay ready" according to Luke 12:35?
